

We are seeking a part-time upper grade schoolteacher to teach in a classical and Catholic classroom at our St Edwards Academy, Athens, TX for the 2026-2027 academic year. You do not need a teaching certification nor formal teaching experience to apply. We will teach you everything you need to know. The right applicant may have experience homeschooling or working with homeschool children, ministry in your Catholic parish, teaching Religious Education or Catechism classes, teaching your own children, or perhaps teaching in a classical or private school (although not required).

St Edward Academy (www.stedwardacademy.org), is a classical homeschool academy in the Catholic tradition using the St. Patrick Curriculum (www.stpatrickcurriculum.org).

Applicants must have a deep love for the Catholic faith. Curriculum and grading guidelines are provided. The ideal applicant will have strong communication skills, good organization, timeliness, a traditional view of the student/teacher relationship, and must be living the Catholic faith day-to-day, including having received all the sacraments appropriate to his or her state in life.

All staff complete a background check and Safe Environment training prior to teaching at the Academy.

Hours are Mondays, Wednesday and Friday 8:00 am - 3:15 pm. Teachers must be willing to prepare for classes at home, follow and implement the lesson plans and come to class prepared to teach in a highly structured environment.

Apply by sending resume to director@stedacademy.org